David and Susan Oney were present to report that "hundreds of rounds" are being fired by their neighbors. State police say there is nothing they can do; in fact, a trooper was there when the shooting was taking place. Ted reported that the township attorney, Ray Davis, says that making a township ordinance is out. The neighbors are on their own property. The Oney(s) should contact an attorney to discuss whether to bring a civil suit. The township supervisors have no authority in this matter as they are not the police. The supervisors encouraged the Oney(s) to retain an attorney as to whether they have grounds for a civil lawsuit. They will call Jason Legg tomorrow. The supervisors asked that they keep them informed as to what he says and also if he has any constructive suggestions for the supervisors. The Oney(s) also expressed concern over children being present during the shooting.
